

Topic: Possessive adjective

1. Explanation

Possessive adjectives are words that indicate ownership or possession. They describe who owns or is related to something and always accompany a noun.

2. When to Use

- Possessive adjectives are used to show possession or relationship and must always be followed by a noun.

3. How to Use

- They come before the noun.
- They do not change based on gender or number.

4. List of Possessive Adjectives and Their Meanings in Portuguese

Personal pronouns	Possessive adjectives	Meaning in Portuguese
I	My	Meu, meus, minha, minhas
You	Your	Teu, teus, tua, tuas, seu, seus, sua, suas
He	His	Dele
She	Her	Dela
It	Its	Dele, dela (para animais e objectos)
We	Our	Nosso, nossos, nossa, nossas
You	Your	Vosso, vossos, vossa, vossas
They	Their	Deles, delas

5. Exercises

A. Fill in the blanks with the correct possessive adjective:

1. I love ____ new shoes.
2. She lost ____ phone at the mall.
3. We are visiting ____ grandparents this weekend.
4. He forgot ____ keys at home.
5. The monkey is licking ____ tail.

B. Translate the following sentences into English:

1. Minha casa é pequena.
2. O gato lambe sua pata.
3. Nossos amigos estão chegando.
4. O carro deles é azul.
5. Eu esqueci minha mochila na escola.

C. Choose the correct option:

1. That is ____ book on the table. (you)
2. They love ____ new apartment.
3. She is going to meet ____ cousin today.
4. We need to clean ____ room.
5. The dog is wagging ____ tail.

My Family and Our Daily Routine

My name is Jake, and I live with my family in a small house. My parents wake up early every day. Their morning starts with a cup of coffee. My mother prepares breakfast, and her pancakes are delicious. My father reads his newspaper while drinking his coffee.

After breakfast, I go to school with my sister. Her school is near our house, so we walk together. Our teacher is very kind, and she always helps us with our homework.

In the afternoon, I play soccer with my friends. They bring their own soccer balls. My sister prefers to stay home and play with her cat. The cat loves its toys and sleeps on its favorite blanket.

At night, we have dinner together. Our family enjoys talking about our day. After dinner, I do my homework, and then I go to my bedroom to sleep. My sister does the same in her room.

This is our daily routine, and we love our life!